

A Family for Every Child- Heart Gallery

All of our Heart Gallery Venues choose to donate their space to house these inspirational portraits of children who are looking to find their forever families. We can only hope to have these portraits help and encourage individuals in our community to adopt. If you are interested in supporting our Heart Gallery you can sponsor a venue and the frames we use below.

Heart Gallery-Children Spotlight!

Diamond and Joseph

"We love each other and are inseparable. We have lots of love to share with our new family." Diamond and Joseph are sweet children with a lot of love. They are kind to others and very respectful. The children currently live apart, but can't wait to be in their forever home together. During visits, Diamond and Joseph get along well. They rarely argue with each other or have power struggles. They mesh together and each one takes and accepts their role in the relationship.

Brittni

Brittni is a teen with a ton of spunk and personality! She is very outgoing and talkative. She loves to laugh and be silly. She cares about other people and wants to help when she can. She enjoys dressing up and doing crafts. Brittni has an adventurous spirit and isn't afraid to try new things.
